

Mark Schmidt is the executive director for the General Society of Mayflower Descendants, having assumed that position in October 2021. He has been in nonprofit management since 2001, having previously served as the executive director for the Museum of World War II in Natick, MA; the historic 1699 Winslow House in Marshfield, MA; and the Falmouth Historical Society and Museums on the Green in Falmouth, MA. He has his Ph.D. (ABD) in History from Northeastern University in Boston and did his undergraduate work at the University of Illinois. A native of suburban Chicago, he is a lifelong Chicago Cubs fan, having finally lived long enough to see them win the World Series in 2016. His wife is a retired elementary school teacher and his son is a newlywed living and working in Maine.